CARBONDALE.

The game of base ball on the Fourth between the Nightingales of this city and a Honesdale club resulted in a victory for Carbondale; score, 17 to 4.

The directors of the Honesdale company yesterday morning awarded the contract for the erection of their new shop to T. C. Robinson. The building will be 39x59 feet on the ground, two stories in height and constructed of brick with slate covered roof. The trimmings will be of blue stone, rock faced, and the building will be finished in sixty days.

Considerable excitement was witnessed on Main street yesterday afternoon by a horse attached to a pair of thills dashing up the sidewalk. The animal was caught in front of the Hotel American and no serious damage was done.

Dr. Charles Barr and wife left yesterday for an extended visit with relatives in Onondaga and Binghamton.

Mrs. Edward Lewsey and son, Harold, spent Wednesday with friends in Forest City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shiffer, of Pittston, spent the Fourth at the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fanderford, of Canaan street.

B. J. Maxie, of Forest City, was a Carbondale visitor yesterday.

Miss Minnie Cowles is the guest of Miss Cora Bunnell, of Honesdale.

The Scranton Bedding company, and Kerr & Siebeck, of Scranton, have jointly leased the store in the W. W. Watt building, recently occupied by the New York store. The above parties will take possession of the place early next week. The business will be conducted under the management of Albert W. Kerr, son of S. G. Kerr.

BURYEA.

FOREST CITY.

The picnic, which was held on the Fourth by the Catholic societies of this place, was a grand success financially and socially. The different societies were astir early at their halls making arrangements for the parade, which took place shortly after 9 o'clock. All societies met at the Catholic church and formed for the line of march, which was as follows: North on Delaware street to head of Clifford street; counter-march to Dundaff street; east on Dundaff to Main; north on Main street to Clifford street; counter-march on Main street to Hillside railway crossing; north on Main to Center street, and east on Center street to the picnic grounds across the Lackawanna. The different societies paraded in the following order: Rev. Father Coroner in carriage, Forest City Corset band, Chief Marshal James White, Aids J. F. Gallagher and J. J. Walker. Marshal Michael Welsh, representing Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians; Knights of Father Matthew, St. George's society, Lithuanian; the Sacred Heart society, Polish; Society of St. Anthony Lithuanian, Catholic Mutual Benefit association, drilled boys, Father Matthew cadets, Sunday school, Liberty Fire and Drum corp, of Forest City, society of St. Michael, Slavesh, division I, A. O. H., St. John's Greek society, Vandling band, citizens of Forest City. When the picnickers reached the grounds everything was in condition for a day of pleasantness, and such was had. Between six and seven hundred took part in the parade, it being one of the largest, if not the largest ever held in this borough. August Marshall won the $30 gold prize. All members of the board of trade and citizens that are interested in the prosperity and development of Forest City, and also their own business interests, are requested to be present at the meeting this evening, for the constitution and by-laws will be adopted and several committees appointed.

Miss Annie Duran, of Susquehanna, teacher-elect of one of the departments of the Forest City school, is visiting at the home of F. Cunningham, sr.

The fire works that W. T. Davies had displayed in front of his business place, became ignited Wednesday morning by some boy throwing a lighted fire-cracker on the stand. Considerable excitement was prevalent for a short time, and it looked very much as if we would have a conflagration, but this was averted by throwing part of the stand into the street. The Enterprise Home company and the Hillside fire department were on the scene in a few seconds, but their services were not needed. The loss was about $5. Rather a quick sale for Mr. Davies.

After the third sitting of the checker contest, Tuesday afternoon, between Carmichael, of Scranton, and Lewis, of Forest City, was over, fifteen games had been played, of which eight were draws, two were won by Lewis and five by Carmichael, thus the Scranton "General" was three games ahead of Lewis. The evening sitting was to have begun at 7 o'clock, but Lewis, who had not been feeling well since the game of Saturday, could not play upon the advice of a doctor. Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock Lewis was not in condition to play and gave up the contest. The purse was awarded to Carmichael. Thomas E. Reynolds, of Scranton, visited his brother, W. G. Reynolds, in his place yesterday.

PITTSBON.

That THE TRIBUNE is daily taking on a great boom in this place is evidenced by the eagerness with which it has been sought for during the past few days. The people realizing from the special articles which have appeared within its pages during the past few weeks that in THE TRIBUNE they have a friend which can neither be bribed nor intimidated by any individual or clique or combination.

The firm of E. Robinson & Sons, of Scranton, closed Arnold Henrich's place of business Tuesday evening on a sheriff's sale writ. The sale is announced to take place July 10.

The Fourth passed off quietly in this place without any incident to speak of. The picnic at St. John's church congregation at Oregon park was largely attended, and a neat sum will be realized. In the morning the flag raising exercises at the German Catholic school were carried out according to the published programme, in the presence of a large concourse of people.

P. A. O'Boyle, Esq., delivered an address in commemoration of the event, that called forth many expressions for its eloquence. Rev. Father Christ, of Scranton, addressed the assemblage in German and undoubtedly greatly pleased his auditors. The flag raising was performed by a committee of the Grand Army of the Republic society. The fire department was called out on the Fourth to extinguish two fires. The first alarm was sounded about 12 o'clock from box 43, corner of Butler and Main streets, and the second alarm from box 63, corner of Main and Railroad streets. The first fire was found to be in the frame building occupied by H. Sullivan, as a cannibal shop, and which is located on the westerly side of Main street, opposite the Sinclair House. The fire was found to be in the basement. It was extinguished with a few buckets of water. It is supposed to have originated from a fire cracker or match carelessly dropped by some boys. Attending the excitement caused by the blaze the awning in front of Campbell's dry goods store ignited from a similar cause and was totally destroyed. The second alarm was due to the dancing platform being discovered on fire during the progress of the picnic in Oregon grove. The blaze, although slight, consumed three of the planks of the floor.

MINOOKA.

Stephen Connors, a former resident of this place, but now of Batte City, Montana, is visiting at the residence of John Wallace.

The game of base ball that took place at Greenwood, on July 4, between the Blues and the Sizzers, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 7 to 3.

T. J. Murray visited Pittston on the Fourth and took part in the two-throw shooting match at that place. He succeeded in gaining 71 points out of 76 on clay birds, and won 5 first prizes and 1 second prize out of 7 different stakes.

J. A. Maloney, of New York City, is visiting Owen Connolly, on Main street.

The Greenwood Society people held a basket picnic at the plaza, in Greenwood, on the Fourth, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Numerous athletic sports were indulged in. The rope jumping feature for the ladies was led by Mrs. William Hollenback. The 100-yard race between Joe Dond and William Dink was won by Dond, who succeeded in covering the space in the remarkable time of 13 seconds. George is a good sprinter and possesses two silver medals. The wrestling match between Dave J. Lovering and Roland Davis proved a very interesting feature. It was very hard to ascertain the superiority of either. Both are members of the Olympic Athletic club, of Greenwood. T. W. Coulough performed difficult feats on the horizontal bar with a cleverness that surprised the spectators.

The base ball game was played after the rest of the sports. It was between the Harriet Men and the Young Boys, and proved to be a very exciting contest. Elias Davis, catcher for the Men, played without an error. John Lovering pitched for the men, but proved an easy mark for the Boys, his curves being too slow. G. T. Davis did some good work on first base for the Men. In the seventh inning he received a slight injury to his finger by being struck with the ball.

The most remarkable feature of the game was the heavy batting of O. M. Hobbs. The game resulted in a victory for the Boys by a score of 23 to 9. The score by innings is as follows: Boys.....4 3 2 0 1 2 0—23 Men.....0 3 2 0 3 1 0—9

Jerry Coughlin, of Davis street, who was sunstruck in the Scranton steel mill last Saturday, lies in a very low condition and is not expected to live.

MAYFIELD.

The ever glorious was very quiet in our borough except early in the morning, when the Mayfield band was out to brighten and cheer (about 4:30 a. m.) arounding citizens from their slumbers, with some fine selections. Most of our citizens left town during the day, going to some one of the many places which offered special attractions. Among those who went to Fairview were Ed Burke, M. Walsh, John and William Friend, John Bergan, R. Kelly, Tom McLoughlin and James Callahan. Some of those who went to Scranton to see our club do up Hazlewood or to see the wheelmen race were Charles Hoyt, Christopher and Leo Dunleavy, P. Dinkin, Patrick Mullen and P. McCarty. All came home well pleased with the day's outing.

P. F. Kiker manipulated the key at the Delaware and Hudson station at Jermyn Wednesday for W. R. Doleen, the gentlemanly agent, who spent the afternoon at Fairview.

Frank Smith and mother are spending a few days at Foster, Pa. Mark Grennell, of Rochester Junction, formerly Delaware and Lackawanna station agent at this place, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Guy MacConnell, of Main street, and renewing old acquaintances.

Those young gentlemen who are so desirous of reading the news, that they abstract the papers from under the door at the station, will find the agent at breakfast had better buy their papers from the news boy and thus save themselves trouble.

Mrs. David Mendelson, of Mill street, was in the "Electric City" yesterday.

Mrs. Ray Latz, of New York City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. David Mendelson, in the "Electric City" yesterday.

H. J. DeGraw and Fred Stephens took a trip a week, to Clifford, the first of the week.

JERMYN.

Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard, of Nanticoke, are visiting friends here. Lincman O'Boyle, of the Postal Telegraph company, took the wires off the loop poles here yesterday.

While Scranton, Fairview and numerous other places were blessed with rain, Wednesday only a few drops fell here, not enough to lay the dust.

Part of the stores in town closed last evening at 7 o'clock and will continue to do so until Sept. 1.

Mrs. W. C. Nicholson is ill at her home on Main street.

Johnnie Evers, of Third street, was seriously injured at a late hour Wednesday. He, in company with Willie Jenkins, was firing giant crackers. He covered one with dust and lit the fuse, as it did not go off as soon as expected Johnnie went to relight it. Just as he stooped down it exploded, blowing him about the face and body. His shirt was burned off. Physicians were hastily summoned and he is now resting quietly.

Owing to the forest fires the crop of huckleberries is very small in this vicinity.

HALLSTEAD.

Mrs. William Austin and children are visiting friends in Carbondale. Chauncey Outhout is visiting friends in Athens, N. Y.

Fred Herick, of Binghamton, a former resident of this place, spent the glorious Fourth with friends here.

C. J. Langley called on Susquehanna friends yesterday.

Bruce Ross and family are camping at Three Lakes.

The Fourth went off very quietly in this place.

A game of base ball was played between the Hallstead team and the Great Bend team. The score was 22 to 12 in Great Bend's favor. A number of the players of the Hallstead team were absent, as they went with the band to New Jersey. The next game of ball to be played between these two teams will be a little different than Wednesday's game, as when all the players in the team in this place will be present, no other team in the country can beat them.

We are still "forward and upward" in the way of improvements. A fine brick block is soon to be erected on Franklin street, work having begun yesterday. It is to be an elegant 3-story building with all the modern conveniences. The first floors are to be fitted for stores and banking business; the others are to be for a public hall or lodge room and for living rooms.

Our band is becoming famous. They furnished music for the celebration at Hackettstown, N. J., Wednesday. They report a pleasant time.

AVOCA.

The glorious Fourth was noisestentiously served on the West Side. No public demonstration from any kind marked the day as being one of unusual occurrence. Save the lighting of fireworks and the parade which took place in the morning, nothing of importance took place in the way of celebration.

Many of the residents witnessed the local events, while others attended the Caledonian games at Laurel Hill park, and others the bicycle races, and others enjoyed the day at the various surrounding resorts.

A large number of ladies of Moosic and Pittston enjoyed themselves at a picnic held by St. Mary's congregation at Jackson's park on the Fourth.

Miss Mamie Gilhooly is spending a few days with friends at Olyphant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, of West Avoca, spent the Fourth at Scranton.

Miss Gertrude Kirk, of Moosic, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Maggie Frey, on Parker street, West Avoca.

The Misses Maggie, Bessie and Agnes Morton, of McAlpine street, were visiting friends in Scranton.

George Allan, of Danmore, spent the Fourth with friends in town.

Walter Anderson witnessed the parade at Wilkes-Barre on the Fourth.

Mr. Ryan, who was severely hurt while attending to his duties at Law's shaft last week, is slowly improving at his home in West Avoca.

M. Howell and William English and the Misses Mary McKee and Maggie Lawlor, all of Avoca, enjoyed themselves at a picnic on the Fourth.

Mrs. Charles Aikman, of the West Side, visited her parents at Miner's Mills, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. Borge, who has been visiting her parents at Lake Winola, has returned home.

St. Mary's congregation held a festival on the church lawn last evening. A large crowd attended.

The school teachers were examined yesterday by County Superintendent T. B. Harrison at No. 1 school.

OLD FORGE.

The social held at the Methodist Episcopal church was enjoyed by many.

Mrs. F. Plows, after a week's sickness, is able to go out.

Miss Virginia Donegan, of Shawnee, is visiting Miss Lillian Race.

Miss May Brodhead, of Stroudsburg State Normal school, is home on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stewart have returned home from their wedding tour.

The picnic at Jackson's park, under the auspices of General George A. Custer lodge, Knights of Pythias, was a grand success.

Supervisors Seal and Conway are doing good work on the roads.

Chatman & Co. are building a dwelling house near their lumber yard.

John M. Campbell, of Glenwood lodge, Knights of Pythias, was elected representative to the Grand o.l.g.s. held at York next month.

Contractor B. F. Dond is building twelve cellar walls near the Buck church, for William Connell.

MINAHAN WANTED CLOTHES.

He Went Into the Bell Clothing House and Took Them.

James Minahan was arrested by Officer Mintzer yesterday at the instigation of the proprietor of the Bell clothing store.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon James walked into the store ostensibly to buy goods, but when he got in he thought it might perhaps be cheaper to perlin a few articles, and accordingly slipped a half dozen choice neckties into his pocket, unnoticed, as he thought.

The proprietor, who happened to be near, saw him, and accented him of the theft. Minahan was quite indignant that he should be accused of such an act and resented it by striking at the proprietor, who immediately sent for the officer.

Minahan was very penitent when the officer appeared and begged to be allowed to go home, but his pleadings were vain. He was taken to the central station. His home is on Moosic street on the South Side.

LYNCH THE LUCKY MAN.

Won the Parlor Suit at Penn Clothing House Drawing.

The sidewalk in front of the Penn Clothing and Shoe House was crowded with people last night at 8:30, eager to see who would be the lucky person in the drawing that was about to take place, at which a splendid parlor suit was chance off.

The drawing took place in the right front window. George Keller, D. S. Ryan, and James Colman were the judges. Miss Effie Bradley drew the tickets until the twenty-fifth was reached. That was decided to be the winning ticket. It was No. 4239, and was held by H. Lynch, of 1123 Vine street.

THE ELKS' GREAT EXCURSION

Will Attract Thousands to Lake Ariel on July 11.

The attractions that are already assured for the excursion of the Scranton Elks of Lake Ariel next Wednesday, July 11, give every promise of inviting thousands to spend a day of delightful recreation.

Ample accommodation will be made for transportation. Trains will leave at convenient intervals for the lake. The open air concert by Bauer's full band, the carnival on the lake, and the New England clam bake will be well calculated to make it the effort of pleasure seekers to attend. Professor J. Frank Seigel will personally supervise the dancing.

The committee of arrangements has in view negotiations for further attractions. The athletic events which will take place are: A tug of war between teams selected from members of the lodge; the exalted ruler and past exalted ruler will respectively captain the teams; a fifty yard fat man's race limited to five contestants from any kind of members of the lodge; a wrestling match between two prominent New York wrestlers; a boys' foot race of five entries, free for all, and a sack race of five entries, free for all.

SERIOUS KIND OF SPORT.

Young People Waylay and I-jare a Man in Providence.

Pius Macavitz, of 1821 Bloom avenue, while intoxicated and returning home through Market street at an early hour yesterday morning was accosted by a party of young men and women, who, in the sport asked Macavitz for money.

In a melee which followed Macavitz was struck on the head with a stone. Yesterday afternoon a rumor that the man was dead was followed by an investigation by County Detective Shea. The detective found Macavitz walking near his home but quite badly hurt.

No arrests have been made yet.

WEDDING OF JERMYN COUPLE.

Miss Mary E. Stevens and Henry Martyn Wedded in This City.

Miss Mary E. Stevens and Henry Martyn, of Jermyn, were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in this city by Rev. A. W. Cooper, their former pastor. The ceremony was performed at the pastor's home on the West Side.

The bride was attended by Miss Anna Ellis and the groom by Frederick Stevens, a brother of the bride. Mr. Martyn is minister at the Methodist Episcopal church of Jermyn, and both bride and groom are well and favorably known among a large circle of friends.

PICNIC AT MOUNTAIN LAKE.

Enjoyed by St. Cecilia Graduates and Their Friends.

The 1894 class of graduates of St. Cecilia's academy and their friends spent a very pleasant time yesterday at Mountain lake. A basket picnic was held at which delicious refreshments were provided by Caterer Huntington. Vocal and instrumental music made the day pass quickly.

A few hours of the afternoon were spent in boat riding on the lake. The names of those in the party are: Misses Tessie Casick, Mary Casick, Agnes Callahan, Rose Campbell, Eleanor Burke, Cecelia Schroeder, Mary Dunn, Annie Colligan, Marie Grier, Teresa Sweeney and Annie Bell, John Brown, Anthony Duffy, Patrick Boland, Peter F. Casick, James Bell, John Lynott, Leo Lynch, John J. Gordon, Will F. Bradley, Henry Hart and Philip Malley, of Mahanoy City.

The picnickers returned home after their day's pleasure at 8 o'clock last evening.
